WONDERFUL PROGRESS.
For a company which has but just completed twenty-five years of corporate existence, the Provident Life of New York gets forth a statement showing truly wonderful progress. Only sixteen companies of the United States have over $100,000,000 of ordinary life business in force, and the Provident Savings is one of the youngest companies attaining that distinction. I. R.

WHAT CAUSED BILLY BESWICK TO WHISTLE.

HE IS INTERVIEWED BY WELL-KNOWN HONOLULU NEWS-PAPER MAN.

The Strange Meeting With an Entire Stranger and the Telling of a Hard Luck Story.

The other evening Billy Beswick, the genial mixologist of the Hawaiian hotel and a gentleman who has caused since his arrival here the total disappearance of icicles in the hotel billiard room, was approached by a well known newspaper man. The approach was made after Billy was off watch.
"I see," began the newspaper man, producing pencil and note book, "that you are going to appeal the case."
"Yes, I am thinking about carrying it to a higher court."
"On what grounds?"
"On the grounds that the Chinaman was a resident of Hawaii, he being born here, and had a perfect right to hand."
"What are the prospects?"
"Very bright, in my judgment, very bright."
Yesterday as Billy was rubbing down the koa wood bar with a crash towel a stranger rushed up to him and grasped him warmly by the hand.
"Brooks, old boy, I'm glad to see you!
How are you getting along? Given up the law? Well, well, well; we all have our ups and downs."
"That's right," rejoined Billy. Then he went on to tell the stranger a hard luck story, as Billy only can. When he commenced narrating his family troubles which alienated hearts, tears glistened in the eyes of the stranger.
Liquid refreshments were frequently taken by the twin to assuage sorrow.
Finally the stranger, who had arrived on the Australia, left Billy.
The genial mixologist turned to the heavy French glass mirror behind the bar and scrutinized himself critically.
"Am I the double of F. M. Brooks, the attorney," he soliloquized. "I must be," and Billy whistled.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Orpheum had a very fair attendance last night to witness the "Luau" which amused them. The retirement of Benson and Miller was missed very much, they having left for the Coast yesterday. New talent arrived on the same steamer from the colonies and go on with the change of program tonight.

and ready for the numerous and fastidious patrons of the Union Grill, and will be served in a superior manner by the best of chefs.
